

Volunteer Opportunities for a Global Women's Conference at the United Nations

IMPACT Leadership 21, a global women's leadership initiative of the Foundation for the Support of the United Nations (FSUN), an international NGO in General Consultative Status with UN Economic and Social Council and Associated with UN Department of Public Information, has opportunities for both male and female volunteers to help out with its upcoming 2nd Annual POWER OF COLLABORATION Global Summit to be held at the United Nations Headquarters, NYC on March 25, 2015, from 10am-8pm.

Internship Opportunities in IMPACT

IMPACT is also looking for interns who are New York-based and can devote at least 15 hours /week of their time, minimum 4 months commitment.

We are looking for graduate and MBA students, young professionals with background, experience and competencies in any of the following:

- high-level event organization and logistics management
- research and program development
- public and media relations/press
- strategic marketing and branding
- business development and investor relations
- tech, multimedia and online marketing platforms

Candidates must be New-York based and able to attend after-5 pm meetings, when necessary. Please submit your Resume on or before February 13, 2015 to:

communications@impactleadership21.com
Attention: Emma Fang, Chief of Staff

Please indicate if you are applying as a volunteer or as an intern.

Thank you.